Resolved, That we tender our slucere and heartfelt thanks to orighth Thomas, Esc., and lady for the elegant manner in which they entertained this company on their second annual target excurson held October 15, 183. We most cordisity thank them for their liberal hospitalities extinded towards us on that occasion. Also to Mr. Thomas for the handsome present which he presented to the company, all of which stamp him as one of nature's noblemen, possessed of one of the best traits of man, whose liberality and kindness cannot be expressed in words; but, to be appreciated, must be in being acquainted with the man. Hoping that he may long live to enjoy the happiness and enjoyment which we experienced on that never to be forgotten occasion is the heartselt wish of this company.

Resolved, That we also tender our thanks to the gentlemen throughout the county who contributed to our list of prizes.
